

Compost Facility Loader

The front end loader may be the single most important piece of equipment for yard waste composting.

West Central Indiana Solid Waste Management District tractor with loader

Versatile equipment for pulling turner, watering equipment, or for moving material.

Rule of thumb

A typical loader should be able to move 480 cyds per hour.